

WAN HAI LINES LTD.

Occupational Safety & Health Policy

WAN HAI LINES LTD., has been well known as a leading container shipping company, insists to ensure the transportation safety and follow the laws and regulations of occupational safety and health in order to do preventive controlling of the damage and risk of accidents in the workplace and make efforts to eliminate hazard and reduce the risk of occupational safety and health.

We are committed to promoting the following actions with the concept of full participation and continual improvement.

1. Complying with relevant occupational safety and health regulations, international conventions, and agreeing to observe other requirements.
2. Establishing a safe working environment for container shipping and operation to ensure the safety of participants and equipments in the workplace.
3. Enhancing the sense of safety and health and cultivating employee's concept of safety and health and preventing occupational human accidents through the educational training and measures of health improvement.
4. Enacting occupational safety & health management system and implement consultation and participation of workers and representatives, regularly review and continuously improve safety and health performance.

The ISO45001 occupational safety and health management system covers the company's workers at operating locations, terminal container loading and unloading, cargo warehousing operations and contract-related operations and other stakeholders.

WAN HAI LINES LTD.

WE CARRY, WE CARE.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Hsieh Fur-Lung', written over a horizontal blue line.

President Hsieh, Fur-Lung
April 15, 2025